DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 9-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for "a solar panel", does not reasonably provide enablement for "a separating member is provided which separates the vessel into an upper water containing portion and a lower water containing chamber, the separating member carrying the solar panel; the water pump is positioned in the lower chamber of the vessel below the member and solar panel; and a return path is provided for water from the upper portion of the vessel to the lower chamber of the vessel.", "a peripheral ridge", "a removable insert", and "a space between the separating member and a wall of the vessel". The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. Applicant amended the claims in an attempt to overcome the rejections of the Office Action dated June 01, 2007, the amendment dated November 30, 2007 amended claims 1, 6 and added new claims 12-22, the amendment introducing new matter as noted above, Applicant failed to show the relationship between the specification and the newly added limitations, Application also failed to show the support of the specification toward the newly added claims 12-22.

Art Unit: 3752

3. For the purpose of this Office action, the claims will be examined as best understood by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 9-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tomoyoshi. (JP 08196966) in view of Lin as best understood by the examiner.

Tomoyoshi teaches all the limitations of the claims except for dividing the vessel into two chambers. However, Lin discloses a water feature having a vessel 10 with a supported peripheral ridge for containing water, a separating member 40 that separates the vessel 10 into an upper water containing portion (with float 50) and acted as an insert, a lower water containing portion, an electrically powered submersible water pump 30 mounted to the separating member, a return path (see column 2, lines 36+), a series of undisclosed apertures on the bottom of member 40 could be utilized for the water return path (as shown in figure 1); and the water pump 30 is electrically connected by means of a submerged, water tight separate connection in the lower chamber with battery 20 located in a water tight chamber 11 (see figure 2). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to have provided the device of Tomoyoshi with a water feature having two chambers as suggested by Lin.

Doing so would provide a way for recycling the flowing water and such modification is merely the use of known technique to improve a similar device.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed November 20, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The amendment dated November 20, 2007 amended claims 1, 6 and added new claims 12-22, the amendment introducing new matter as noted above. The Examiner rejecting the claims in view of the new matter as best understood.

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 9-22 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection and as best understood by the Examiner in view of the new matter as indicated above.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
